

Timeline and Criteria for Class Cancellations—Summer 2026

Class Cancellation Timeline Calendar for Summer 2026

(Summer Session Start Date: June 8, 2026)

Note: For late-start courses, please apply the same methodology and track/calculate the data independently.

April 9, 2026 (Not earlier than 60 Calendar Days Before Start of Class)

- Action: Begin monitoring enrollment for all scheduled classes.
- Communication: Notify faculty of low-enrolled classes and encourage enrollment strategies.
- Super registration (HS): Tuesday, May 5 and Friday, May 8—Instructional Deans provide the list to Dean of Enrollment Services to promote.
- Deans and/or faculty email (a) Dean of Counseling and (b) Director of Community Relations and Marketing the list of low enrolled classes so pass it on to counselors and the social media specialist.

May 9, 2026 (Not earlier than 30 Calendar Days Before Start of Class)

- Action: Classes cannot be canceled due to low enrollment before this date. Classes may be canceled with the consent of the instructor at any time.
- Communication: Confirm status of low-enrolled classes with faculty.

May 25-28, 2026 (10 Business Days Before Start of Class)

- Face-to-Face/Hybrid/Synchronous Classes: Cancel if enrollment is fewer than 6 students.
- Asynchronous Classes: Cancel if enrollment is fewer than 9 students.
- Communication: Notify faculty and students of cancellations.

June 1-4, 2026 (5 Business Days Before Start of Class)

- Face-to-Face/Hybrid/Synchronous Classes: Cancel if enrollment is fewer than 10 students.
- Asynchronous Classes: Cancel if enrollment is fewer than 14 students.
- Communication: Notify faculty and students of cancellations.

June 3-10, 2026 (2 Business Days Before Start of Class)

- Face-to-Face/Hybrid/Synchronous Classes: Cancel if enrollment is fewer than 15 students.
- Asynchronous Classes: Cancel if enrollment is fewer than 20 students.
- Communication: Notify faculty and students of cancellations.

June 8–12, 2026 (First Week of Instruction)

- Action: Deans may allow time for late enrollment.

- Communication: Final decisions on classes made in consultation with faculty.
 - Compensation: Faculty compensated if a class is canceled after instruction begins.
-

Communication of Class Cancellations

To Faculty:

- May 9 – May 18, 2026: Early notifications of low enrollment.
- May 25-28, 2026: Faculty receive cancellation decision.
- June 1-4, 2025: Faculty receive cancellation decision.
- June 3-10, 2026: Faculty receive cancellation decision.

To Students:

- May 25 – June 10, 2026: Students will be notified of class cancellations via email, text, and/or phone. The notification will include the reason for the cancellation and suggested alternative courses.
-

Contractual Considerations

- Teaching Assignments: Adjusted per the collective bargaining agreement.
 - Faculty Compensation: Paid for instructional hours if class is canceled after the first session.
-

Resources:

This timeline aligns with AP 6.04.1 Guidelines for Class Cancellation to ensure structured decision-making and effective communication.