Diversity

During the 2016-2017 school year, Canada College enrolled 9,935 students:

- 44% Latino
- 26% Caucasian
- 14% Asian
- 4% Filipino
- 4% Multi-racial
- 3% African American
- 1% Pacific Islander

California Competes Report Opportunity Imbalance

“While California’s economy rapidly adds higher-paying jobs, millions of Californians fail to qualify for these opportunities because they lack the required credential or degree. With lagging college completion rates, too few Californians can benefit from the state’s projected economic growth.”

Opportunity Imbalance: Race, Gender, and California’s Education-to-Employment Pipeline, (February, 2018)

California Competes Report Opportunity Imbalance

- California will need 2 million workers with degree or credentials by 2025
- State improvements in high school completion and college enrollment are not resulting in matched improvements in college completion

Degree Attainment

- California students are completing their associate's degree in three years
- California students are completing their bachelor's degree in six years
- Californians without a degree are shut out of occupations with high projected growth

The 3-6 Year Degree Attainment

- 47% of Latino college students earn AA/BA
- 48% of Native American college students earn AA/BA
- 49% of Pacific Islander college students earn AA/BA
- 38% of Black college students earn AA/BA
- 60% of White college students earn AA/BA
- 68% of Asian college students earn AA/BA
