Admission Requirements

The admission requirements and selection criteria are unique to each campus. You must visit their Admission Web page for transfer students.

Unit Requirements: The minimum transfer unit requirements varies from 24 semester units to 30 units. It is advisable to complete 60 lower division transferrable units before transferring.

Major Course Requirements: you may also focus on your Major preparation requirements. The list of required courses can be found at their website under academic programs.

General Education (GE) Requirements: some of the universities accept IGETC in lieu of their own General Education (GE) breadth. However, a majority of them require students to complete the local GE requirements specific to their campus.

GPA Requirements: each campus and program establish their own GPA requirement. Please see admission requirements at their website.

More Information about specific admission requirements, costs, services, admission rate go to:
