Let’s go to college!
TRiO Upward Bound is a federally funded pre-college program designed to assist first-generation college-bound students. In partnership with Sequoia Union High School District, our program serves students in the communities of East Palo Alto and North Fair Oaks in Redwood City, CA.

TRiO Upward Bound is designed to support motivated high school students as they pursue their educational goals of graduation and college attainment. We help students become advocates for their own education, while guiding them through the steps of obtaining a higher education.

Upward Bound students are focused, dedicated, and are expected to make a difference and serve their community!

Summer Program
Our 6 week program runs similar to summer school, with classes, labs, discussions, homework, and activities. Students will take part in:

- Academic Classes - take English, Math, Science and earn up to 7.5 high school credits!
- College Prep - explore college majors and careers.
- Writer’s Lab - learn about yourself and your community!
- Weekly field trips - including community service.
- College tours - Visit colleges in the bay area, learn about special programs, and get motivated!
